

I just want to

I just want to...
Never feel like lost in there
In the shadows of nightmare
Never feel like you won't share
All the love when I still dare

But ever feel like a drowning pair in lusted lake

Never feel like stuck in place
Where everyone can find trace
Out of poison of these days
When you're broken in all ways

But ever feel like a pouring rain
Feel like that kind light drops of rain
Which heal the pain

Never hear you're saying lies
Which crush in heart
Break it on parts
Never see your empty eyes
Empty as a hall of knights

Which died in their losted fights
Alone in a darkest nights
Forgotten in the oldest times

But ever feel
I just want to...

Ever feel
Ever hear
And ever see and ever dream
And ever cry
Ever enjoy
Ane ever be and ever love

And ever love as a shining sun
Forever shine as a neon light for future bride
